Mission Statement: A Christian Organization spreading
Gospel Literature to the world.

Spring 2023

Vol. 48, No. 1

President's letter

In this Spring 2023 ICLD Newsletter we thought it would be nice to emphasize the prayerful attitude the volunteers at ICLD have attempted to maintain over the months and years of ICLD's nearly 62 years of sending Bibles and quality Christian literature free-of-charge to pastors, Bible school teachers, chaplains, and youth workers in developing countries. The need remains great and constant for print literature. Electronics, tech support, reliable electric, and replacement parts are something we take for granted in North America; not so much from what we hear in many places in Africa and Asia where ICLD sends the majority of its materials.

From a Philippines Pastor: Our church is praising our LORD and Savior for using you as instruments of sharing the Gospel of salvation to others. We have shared the Bibles and some Christian literature you generously gave us to other missionary workers and elders of our ministry. They were delighted and praised the Lord the moment we handed to them these precious tools of transforming others to be followers of Christ.

From a Pastor in Ghana: I am very grateful for the parcel you sent to me. Truly the books are helping me a lot. I would like you to keep me on the mailing lists. My prayer is that the Almighty God should assist the organization financially & materially, to keep on this great work.

Shipping Comments: Please note that this last quarter ICLD probably sent out more tonnage of materials than in any similar period in its 61+ years. God has made this possible through generous donations of materials and shipping funds, as well as opening doors to relationships with various container shippers and in-country distributors, along with the volunteer workers who have risen to the occasion. Please give ICLD a call or send an email if you would like to have more of a role in these efforts going forward, by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit.
